ABOUT THE FILMMAKERS

Filmmaker's Statement

Our great inspiration for THE BEAUTIFUL GAME is to present a new, more dynamic vision of Africa. Director Victor Buhler worked as a cameraman for news organizations for many years and learnt at first hand how the West only sees part of the African story. The incredible resourcefulness, determination and resilience of Africans often get framed out. And there's no stronger bond across Africa than the love for soccer: almost every African shares a deep connection to the sport. THE BEAUTIFUL GAME tells the story of a new generation of Africans through the joy, passion and heartbreak of soccer.
